

Throne Room

VERSE

All of heaven shines reflecting Your splendor
Angels stand in line to worship their King
So, then who am I to come into Your presence,
Dressed in imperfection, and ask for anything

CHORUS

Break every chain
Wash every stain
I need You, I need You
Search me, Oh God
Cleanse every thought
Take this heart of mine
And make it Your throne room

VERSE

Reign within this soul that You have created
A Kingdom of Your own that echoes with praise
May Your name be known as Your grace reveals glory
And let the world just marvel at mercy on display

BRIDGE

Lord, I stand in awe
Of Your majesty
As Your kingdom comes
Let it come in me
